NORWICH BULLETIN

Telephone 105 23 Church Street

Willie John, who conducts a grocery store at No. 41 Milk street, was before United States Commissioner Corbett, on Thursday afternoon, charged with resisting an officer of the government in the apprehension of his wife, and with destroying evidence. He was charged with resisting the arrest of his wife, and with destroying evidence. He was charged with resisting the arrest of his wife, and with destroying evidence. He was charged with resisting the arrest of his wife, and with destroying evidence.

At his place of business in this city on Friday, John stated that he was innocent of any violation of the law. He stated that the couple were left at his store in June 1920 by a drummer, who told him he would call later for the supply. John claimed he destroyed the supply before the visit of the government officer, and that when the case came up in May he did not know whether he would have a lawyer or not, as he could not afford to engage one.

The apprehension of the estates of George S. Harrington, Willimantic's first mayor, and one of the city's leading business men, and of Judge Andrew J. Bowen, referee in bankruptcy for Windham county, have been filed by the administrators of the estates. The Harrington estate inventories $60,000.01 and the Bowen estate $33,577.02. The administrators of the Harrington estate are C. Everett Harrington and Homer M. Harrington. The administrators of the Bowen estate are George B. Sullivan and Calvin J. Brown. The administrators of the Bowen estate are H. Clinton Lathrop, and the appraisers, George S.
